Introduction

The Police (Conduct) (Amendment) Regulation 2015 direct that misconduct hearings and special case hearings will be held in public subject to the discretion of the person chairing or conducting the hearing to exclude any person from all or part of the hearing.

Any member of the public or press wishing to attend a misconduct hearing may do so but due to limitations on space and capacity, attendance at the heading will be administered and booked by application through the North Yorkshire Police website www.northyorkshire.police.uk.

Hearings are held in accordance with the following legislation and guidance:-

The Police (Conduct) Regulations 2012/2020

Home Office Guidance – Unsatisfactory Performance, Complaints and Misconduct Procedures

Panel Composition

Misconduct hearings are conducted by a panel of three people. They are chaired by a legally qualified chair who is referred to as the Panel Chair and will be joined by a police officer of at least superintendent rank, who has also had no previous dealings with the case, and an independent lay person who has been selected from an approved list held by the Office of the Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner.

Purpose of Public Hearing

Misconduct hearings are to be held to present the facts of the case and allow officers to give an explanation of their conduct and the circumstances surrounding the allegation. Witnesses may also be called to be questioned. The purpose of a public hearing is to show that the Police disciplinary system is open and honest, fair and effective and that we effectively hold corrupt officers, or those that are found guilty of misconduct, accountable for their actions.

Throughout the hearing, officers are given the opportunity to speak personally or have their legal representative and/or appointed Federation friend to speak on their behalf. The standard of proof is the balance of probabilities, unless facts are admitted.

The hearing is conducted in two parts. The first considers the facts of the allegation against the officer. At the end of this examination of facts, the Panel retire and decide whether the officer's conduct amounts to gross misconduct, misconduct or neither. A finding of gross misconduct means that the matter is deemed so serious that dismissal may be justified.

If it is established to the Panel's satisfaction that the officer's conduct did fail to meet the required standards, the second part of the hearing will determine the outcome. In considering the outcome, the Panel will take into account any aggravating or mitigating factors and consider evidence of the officer's character and record of service.

All misconduct hearings will be in public, subject to any representations made by the officer and or witness, and considerations made by the Chair. Notice of a public hearing will be made not less than 5 working days prior to the hearing and this will be advertised on the force website. The hearing will be observed via live Microsoft Teams link within Police HQ, Alverton Court, Northallerton.

Should the hearing, or part of the hearing be in private, reasons will be given and published on the website. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the Chair will decide whether to publish an outcome notice which may contain:

- I. Name of the officer concerned
- II. Alleged conduct of the officer
- III. Finding
- IV. Outcome

Please note:

- If you are a witness to a listed hearing you will not be eligible for a public seat.
- A hearing could be cancelled at short notice.
- Any expenses must be met by each attendee.
